"...songwriting that doesn't pander to mainstream country, alt-country, so-called Americana, indie-folk, or what-have you. It just tells its story."

★★★★ – Rolling Stone

Nashville, TN – Acclaimed singer/songwriter Hayes Carll has released the new track "She'll Come Back To Me", from his upcoming album You Get It All, out October 29th on Dualtone Music.

Co-written with Aaron Raitiere, the song's narrator speaks with sardonic denial regarding the return of his love. From the first verse, "It rains all day in the desert, And Elvis is alive, A circle's got four corners, And two plus two is five, I've never been hung over, And there ain't no fish in the sea, And she'll come back to me", Carll's lyrics offer vivid images while his wry wit is on full display. "She'll Come Back To Me" is a classic Carll offering that can put a smirk on your face while injecting a little melancholy into your heart. Listen to "She'll Come Back To Me" HERE.

You Get It All is the eighth album from the Grammy-nominated Carll and the follow-up to his critically acclaimed 2019 release What It Is. What It Is received high praise from the press, ranging from Entertainment Weekly to The Wall Street Journal to NPR Music to Rolling Stone, who gave the album a four-star review. What It Is was 2019's most played album at Americana Radio. Hayes Carll's literate, cinematic and soulful songwriting uniquely blends his signature balance of grit and tenderness. His music is honest, sincere and resonates deeply with a fanbase that expands beyond the boundaries of any single genre. You Get It All is sure to expand his audience even further.
