FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Teamwork is one of Ireland's Best Workplaces!
The Cork-based B2B SaaS company made Great Place to Work® Ireland's coveted list

CORK, February 23, 2022 – Following Teamwork's Great Place to Work® Certification last year, the company has been recognized as one of the country's Best Workplaces for the first time ever, landing No. 24 on the 2023 list of Best Workplaces in Ireland, Best Medium Workplaces. The announcement made at the annual Great Place to Work Awards last night, comes after a thorough and independent analysis conducted by Great Place to Work® Institute Ireland.

We are incredibly honored to be recognized in this year's list of the Best Workplaces in Ireland," says Daniel Mackey, Co-Founder, and CTO, Teamwork. Peter and I always knew we wanted to build a company that made a lasting impression - where we work hard, have fun, and create the best possible experiences at work, every day."

"We wouldn't have earned this recognition without every single of our team members who bring their positivity, passion, and commitment to Teamwork's mission to everything that they do. We earned this honor together," continues, Peter Coppinger, Co-founder, and CEO, Teamwork.

This year was a notable year for the awards, as it was the first time that 100 companies were recognized. Teamwork joins the ranks of notable Great Place to Work-Certified tech companies such as Salesforce, and Cisco. The Best Workplaces in Ireland list will appear in a special report launched on Thursday, February 23 in The Irish Times and The Examiner.
