Train the Trainer

Parenting Education is important for the prevention of child abuse, neglect and maltreatment.

Culturally relevant educational programs have been identified as effective.

The Department of Social Services, Child Protection Services partners with a coordinator and trainers throughout the state to create a community of practice and provide Positive Indian Parenting to parents and caregivers throughout the state.

Parent Coaching

Positive Indian Parenting (PIP) was designed to help parents and families remember our teachings and practice them.

PIP allows parents to choose what is right for you, you decide what you want to reclaim and how to apply it to your own life.

Following is a list of the eight sessions:

- Traditional Parenting
- Lessons of the Storyteller
- Lessons of the Cradleboard
- Harmony in Child Rearing
- Traditional Behavior Management
- Lessons of Mother Nature
- Praise in Traditional Parenting
- Choices in Parenting
