

A man in a checkered tracksuit with orange and white stripes on the sleeves and pants is roller skating on a stage. He is holding a woman upside down by her hands. The woman is also on roller skates and wearing a matching checkered tracksuit. The background is a stage with purple and blue lighting. In the bottom right, there is a blue circular logo with the text 'fringe society' in white. A teal banner at the bottom left contains the text 'Artist advertising: rates and specs 2024'. In the bottom right corner, there is text: 'Sophie's Surprise 29th (2023) Underbelly' and 'Photo: Roberto Ricciuti'.

edfringe.com – design guide

If you don't have a designer, there are a few free design tools you can use to create an advert – for example Canva. With this you can create a custom sized design to match the specs above, and drop in images and text.

Things to keep in mind

- Keep it bold and clear – the simpler, the better. Keep to the key information – other details will be in your show listing.
- Do some research for inspiration – look at other ads online including on edfringe.com.
- Mobile and leaderboard ads have different dimensions – please reformat your design to fit each size.
- Some colour combinations can be inaccessible – make sure your ad is clear and legible. Adobe's colour analyzer is a good free tool for this (aim for a score of 3:1 or above).
- Text should be large and kept to a minimum.
- Check with your venue if they require anything to be included (eg logo/banner).

Things to avoid

- Distorted images and text – keep the ratio the same when scaling, avoid squashing and stretching.
- Pixelisation can be caused by poor quality images, over-scaling and compression.
- Overloading a frame with too many images or words.

Please email advertising@edfringe.com with any questions.

Animated gifs

- Adverts can be animated, to loop through a series of frames. This prevents too much information on one frame, and often creates a more eye-catching advert.
- There are a number of free and simple gif creators online.
- Limit the amount of frames in your gif – keep to maximum of four frames ideally.
- Looping – if you want your gif to loop continuously, some programmes will require you to set it to loop forever in the export, otherwise it will stop on the last frame. You can also change the speed of the loop.

Terms and conditions

Acceptance

A1. The Edinburgh Festival Fringe Society ('EFFS') will accept orders for advertisements on edfringe.com ('website') exclusively on the following terms and conditions ('terms').

A2. By placing an order, the advertiser (which is the person placing the order for the advertisement whether he/she is or represents the advertiser of the person(s), event(s), organisation(s) or service(s) referred to in the advertisement or the venue, agency, promoter, manager or media buyer for same) accepts and agrees to be bound by these terms in full.

A3. Acceptance of bookings is provisional, dependent on the official registration of the person(s), event(s), organisation(s) or service(s) referred to in the advertisement, in accordance with all relevant guidelines and restrictions set out by EFFS. If EFFS has not received and approved the corresponding registration materials by the start date of the booking, EFFS will cancel the advertisement and issue a refund to the advertiser less 20% of the booking fee.

A4. Multiple bookings of the same advertisement will not be accepted.

A5. Materials for an advertisement must be provided no later than the deadline specified in this rate card and in accordance with all guidelines and specifications prescribed. All bookings for advertisements on the website shall include specified start and end dates for display of the advertisement. However, if there is a delay in the provision of the artwork to EFFS beyond the start date, the advertisement shall only be displayed from two working days after receipt of the artwork until the specified end date in the original booking. This may result in the advertisement being displayed for less than the specific time duration requested at the time of booking, however, in such circumstances, payment will not be refunded.

A6. EFFS may, without any responsibility to the advertiser, reject, cancel or require any advertisement to be amended that it considers unsuitable or contrary to these terms and remove, not display, suspend or change the position of any such advertisement. EFFS will not display any advertisement for any advertiser who has not paid any sums due for any advertising or any other debts owing to EFFS. The advertiser will remain responsible for all outstanding charges.

A7. The advertisement must be exclusively for shows or venues registered with the current Fringe. Any advert promoting shows that are not registered or for venues not registered will be cancelled or deemed as commercial advertising and subject to commercial advertising rates.

A8. Adverts on the website can only be booked for display on the website for a minimum of seven days.

Content

C1. The advertiser guarantees to EFFS that:

- (i) Any information supplied in connection with the advertisement is accurate, complete, true and not misleading;
- (ii) It has obtained the consent of any living person whose name or image (in whole or in part) is contained in any advertisement; and
- (iii) The advertisements are legal, decent, honest and truthful, are not contrary to the provisions of any applicable law, regulation or code of practice, are not defamatory or obscene and do not infringe the rights of any person (including any person's intellectual property rights).

C2. If the advertiser requires an amendment to the advertisement after materials have been provided, or if EFFS deems an amendment necessary in accordance with these terms, this will be the sole responsibility of the advertiser. All materials for the revised advertisement must be supplied to the EFFS Marketing team.

Any amendment will:

- (i) be subject to EFFS's sole discretion on provision of two working days' prior notice to EFFS
- (ii) adhere to these terms;
- (iii) not substantially alter the content, subject or spirit of the original advertisement; and
- (iv) any amendment may be subject to a surcharge (£50.00 minimum), applied at EFFS's sole discretion.

Payment

P1. All payments for bookings must be received in full by the stated deadline, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

Liability

L1. EFFS shall take reasonable measures to reproduce advertisements as provided by the advertiser, but cannot guarantee that the advertisement will be of the same quality.

L2. If a booked advertisement is not published at all solely due to a mistake on EFFS's part, the booking will be cancelled and the advertiser shall be entitled to a full refund. This shall be the advertiser's sole remedy for failure to publish the advertisement.

L3. EFFS shall not be responsible, under any circumstances, for any loss of profit, loss of opportunity, loss of goodwill, loss of anticipated saving, loss of revenue and/or any other loss that happens as a side effect of the main loss suffered by the advertiser or any loss that could not be contemplated by EFFS and the advertiser. EFFS's maximum total liability for any loss or damage arising out of or in relation to any advertisement whether in contract, tort or otherwise shall not exceed the total amount of the charges for the relevant advertisement actually paid by or on behalf of the advertiser.

L4. The advertiser will fully reimburse EFFS for all claims, losses or expenses arising as a result of any breach of or failure to perform any of these terms and/or the use or publication of the advertisement by EFFS in accordance with these terms.

L5. Although EFFS will take reasonable measures to deliver impressions booked on the website in full within the dates specified, EFFS cannot guarantee this. In the event the number of impressions during the campaign period is less than the impressions booked by the advertiser, EFFS shall continue to serve the advertisements after the end of the campaign period until the number of booked impressions has been reached.

L6. In the event of any disagreement regarding the number of impressions served for advertisements on the website, the advertiser agrees that the figures provided by EFFS ad servicing software will be final and binding.

Rights

R1. The advertiser grants EFFS the right (free of charge) to:

i) use the advertiser's names, trademarks and/or logos as EFFS may consider necessary for the purposes of publishing or displaying the advertisements; and

(ii) reproduce the advertisement in any media at any time from the date the advertisement was displayed on the website for promotional purposes. For the avoidance of doubt, the content, layout and format of any reproduction in any media will be subject to variation at EFFS's sole discretion.

R2. Nothing in these terms and conditions shall affect the statutory rights of an advertiser who is a consumer.

Cancellation

D1. The advertiser may cancel an advertisement on the website provided that notice in writing is received by EFFS with 14 days' notice prior to the date it is to be removed, in which case EFFS will issue a refund to the advertiser less 20% of the fees for the remaining period of the advertising agreement. Please send notice of your intention to cancel the advertisement on the website to the EFFS Marketing team. Cancellation will only be effective on confirmation of receipt of your notice in writing.

General

G1. Subject to clause R2, these terms shall be governed by Scottish law and the courts of Scotland will have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to these terms.
