

Dayton Daily News

March 17, 2019

BUSINESS PEOPLE

Kettering Health Network is making several key leadership transitions, effective March 11, 2019.

Terry Burns, executive vice president of Kettering Health Network and president of Kettering Medical Center since 2017, has been promoted to chief operating officer of Kettering Health Network. In this role, he will provide the oversight that continues the alignment of all eight network hospitals and 120+ facilities.

Burns

Walter Sackett has been named the president of Kettering Medical Center. Since 2012, Sackett has served as president of Sycamore

Sackett

Medical Center, including Kettering Behavioral Medicine Center and the Senior Division, and is the executive sponsor for network services of Nutrition, Environmental Services and Clinical Laboratory operations. Sackett joined Kettering Health Network in 2007 as vice president of Clinical Services at Kettering Medical Center.

Anita Adams-Jenkins has been promoted to president of Sycamore Medical Center, including Kettering Behavioral Medicine

Jenkins

Center and the Senior Division. Adams-Jenkins began her career with Kettering Health Network in 2015 as the new chief operating officer of Kettering Medical Center.

"Kettering Health Network is blessed to have experienced and exceptional leaders," says Fred Manchur, CEO of Kettering Health Network, "and we are excited to have Brad Griffith, CRPC®, MSA, as our new Chief Financial Officer. Brad has over seven years of experience in accounting, investments and financial planning. He will be working with clients on holistic financial plans and building their investment portfolios. He will be based out of Buckingham's Columbus, OH office, which specializes in working with closely held business owners. Griffith brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our firm and its affiliates. Eubel Brady & Suttman Asset Management (EBS) recently announced three appointments within the firm. Dawn Warrick was promoted to the newly created position of Director of Culture & Team Development. Warrick has 17 years of firm experience and has been instrumental in developing the firm's service-oriented culture, which the company believes is a long-term competitive advantage. Warrick holds a Professional in Human Resources designation. Terri King, who has 15 years of firm experience and 25 years of industry experience, has been promoted to the position of Chief Compliance Officer. King is a graduate of the University of Findlay and earned a bachelor's in psychology and western equestrian studies.

Griffith

Brad Griffith, CRPC®, MSA has been named Financial Planner at Buckingham Financial Group. Brad has over seven years of experience in accounting, investments and financial planning. He will be working with clients on holistic financial plans and building their investment portfolios. He will be based out of Buckingham's Columbus, OH office, which specializes in working with closely held business owners. Griffith brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our firm and its affiliates.

Warrick

Dawn Warrick was promoted to the newly created position of Director of Culture & Team Development. Warrick has 17 years of firm experience and has been instrumental in developing the firm's service-oriented culture, which the company believes is a long-term competitive advantage. Warrick holds a Professional in Human Resources designation.

King

Terri King, who has 15 years of firm experience and 25 years of industry experience, has been promoted to the position of Chief Compliance Officer. King is a graduate of the University of Findlay and earned a bachelor's in psychology and western equestrian studies.