

March 2024 Black Hills Volunteer of the Month Lyn Haug

The Helpline Center congratulates Lyn Haug on being named the Black Hills March 2024 Volunteer of the Month. Volunteer of the Month is an area-wide award program sponsored Helpline Center. Lyn is nominated by Bethany Christian Service.

For the past decade, Lyn Haug has volunteered with Bethany Christian Service, creating beautiful quilts for children from Bethany families. Lyn's dedication to her craft is unparalleled, as she brings 3 to 7 quilts each month, each an artistic masterpiece with a unique theme and color scheme. Her selflessness and compassion have brought joy to countless children who have received her beautiful quilts.

Bethany's team is grateful for Lyn's unwavering commitment to helping clients. Her hard work and devotion set a shining example of the positive impact that one person can have on the lives of others. Lyn's well-deserved recognition is a testament to her inspiring achievement. Her contributions remind us of the power of compassion and dedication in making the world a better place.

The Helpline Center of the Black Hills recognized Lyn's exceptional service and presented her with the Volunteer of the Month certificate and a letter from Mayor Jason Salamun.

For information on volunteer opportunities, please call the Helpline Center at 211 or visit volunteer.helplinecenter.org.