

Specific and/or Aggregate Terminal Liability

HM Insurance Group (HM) offers an option to provide run-out claims protection for employers in the self-funded market. This option helps employers who may opt to convert to a fully insured arrangement in the future.

Product Features/Requirements:

- The Terminal Liability rider can extend the Specific and/or Aggregate Stop Loss insurance for an additional three- or six-month run-out period
- Specific and/or Aggregate Terminal Liability riders can be purchased at the initial effective date and/or at renewal
- Specific and/or Aggregate Terminal Liability riders can be purchased independently or combined
- The rider is available for Specific and/or Aggregate coverage with a 12/12 or run-in contract
- The contract basis will cover claims that are incurred during the policy term and paid in the three or six months following the end of the plan year
- HM must be notified in writing by the policyholder of intent to activate the option 15 days prior to the end of the contract
- If coverage terminates before the end of the contract period, the rider will not apply
